

Figure 9: A histogram of the time of peak virus measurements from the 500 simulations. The distribution of the data is not normal. A normal distribution with the same mean and standard deviation is also plotted for comparison.